Carrefour Marin is an area located in the commune of the cross of bouquets bordering Cabaret, Saut d'Eaut, Thomazea, Bay of Port-au-Prince, Gonthier, Arrondissement of Port-au-Prince, Belle-Anse, Fonds-Verrettes.

The town has a population of 227,012 inhabitants (based on the 2009 census estimate). Raised to the rank of Commune in 1959, in its contemporary life, the Commune of Croix-des-Bouquets is recognized for being a conservative environment.

Protestantism is one of the most practiced religions in the Commune.

The Reform Medical Clinic was founded by Pastor Jean Jacob Paul, a patriot and devoted servant in the work of the Lord, with the help of Reform Christian missionaries with the aim of helping children and people in the community to solve certain health problems.

In a country where the evolution towards an improvement in the state of health of the population is very slow with limited accessibility to basic health care.

The clinical reform project appears to be a deliverance for the population of the Marin area and its surroundings, specifically children.

Unfortunately the hatred and ambition of more than one will push some people to plot against the Pastor to the point of wasting his life, a loss and a huge deficit for his family and the entire community.

From then on, the clinic went through ups and downs due to poor management and the greed of some people until it even closed its door. At the request of the children and the population of the area, the enthusiasm and the vision of the co-founder of the work, Mrs. Jocelyne, the clinic reopened its doors with new leadership, a new administration, a new staff made up of some old for experience, and new executives, with a broader, more serious, more credible vision of what has been before, a vision accompanied by a sense of responsibility and seriousness.
